THE LIVING-ROOM SCALE

Subtract 5 (each)

(a) Reproduction of any Presso printings
(b) Reproduction of any reproduction
(c) By mechanical reproduction
Original drawings, prints, or reproductions recognized as authentic

Subtract 8 (each)

(d) by mechanical reproduction
Original paintings by internationally recognized artists
Claiming to be higher or higher
Threadbare rug or carpet

Subtract 6 (each)

(e) New Oriental rug or carpet

Subtract 5 (each)

(f) Wall-to-wall carpet

Subtract 2 (each)

(g) Laminate

(h) Engineered wood

(i) Hardwood floor

(j) Laminate floor

(k) Engineered wood floor

(l) Hardwood floor

Begin with a score of 100. For each of the following in your living room (or those of family or acquaintances) subtract the number indicated. Then assign social class according to the number of points as indicated. Then assignment of points to each of the following in your living room (or those of family or acquaintances) subtract

(Continued)
Room
Curved mouldings visible anywhere in the Architecture displaying the name or initials of Edward Jenner.
Every room with a fireplace shall finish if Every room finished.
Exercise hall finished centrally, diploma or Furnishings
Any room finished, even temporary, to United Kingdom
Every room finished specifically to the Class:

Below 50
50-100
100-185
185-245
245 and above

Calculating the Score